English language courses for Academic Studies

Successful University Entrance

We have been teaching English since 1912. We are the world's oldest accredited English language school.

We have two schools in London.

Westcroft Square offers General English, English for University and preparation for examinations, including IELTS. Our students here are more mature than in many schools and the courses are ideal for motivated people who really need results. Students from Westcroft Square regularly leave us to move on to university or college in the UK.

We also have a Business and Professional Centre in Holland Park, and among the courses offered there are two which are designed to meet the needs of less experienced people who need business or legal English. They are very suitable for students at postgraduate level who need some specialised language preparation before they do a master's degree.

Our courses combine the highest professional standards with friendly informality.

Helping you with the next stage

Our Academic Relations Manager can advise you on the opportunities available at UK universities and colleges. We help with visits from universities and colleges and you can also visit university open days.

We have relationships with a number of universities to help you progress to your further studies. We also have links to a wide range of other educational providers if you are interested in non-degree courses, for example, in art and design, fashion, film-making or other creative arts.

“ I am going to study a master’s degree and this course has really helped me prepare for it and feel more confident. ”

Sinem Kirtiloglu, Turkey

If you are thinking of studying a first or second degree in the UK, then one of our Academic Pathways is ideal for you.

Even if you can communicate quite well in English, you probably still need to improve your IELTS score and your academic English to enter a British university. Our Academic Pathway courses will help you prepare for your university studies and will allow you to follow your degree course with confidence.

We offer:

- General English preparation
- Specialised English for University courses
- Very intensive and effective IELTS preparation courses
- One to one meetings with our Academic Relations Manager for University counselling and advice
- Personal introductions to admissions staff at key universities
- First hand information about universities through presentations, visits and open days
- Examinations guidance service including alternatives to IELTS for university entrance

After a course with us, you will be able to:

- get a good mark in your IELTS examination
- participate with confidence in seminars and discussions
- understand and use academic vocabulary effectively and appropriately
- write essays and dissertations in the UK university style
- extract and record information from lectures and reading
- use the internet for research and study
- understand UK university culture and conventions

You can tailor your academic pathway according to your choice of degree.

The Intensive General English course is an ideal starting point, focusing on listening, speaking, reading and writing as well as grammar and vocabulary.

English for University is a specialised course which gives you all the skills you need for a successful university experience. Work on this course includes academic language, study skills, research techniques, IELTS orientation and making the most of your opportunities at university.
