e-learning

With our e-learning courses you can take a London School of English course anywhere in the world.

- You can study when you want
- You can study where you want
- Stimulating activities will keep your motivation high
- Totally flexible to fit around a busy schedule

On our e-learning courses you will benefit from:

- interactive lessons and tasks which ensure efficient learning
- a wide range of interesting and challenging activities
- lessons and tasks based around a variety of business and social situations
- lessons and tasks designed so you can study in small manageable units
- regular contact with a mentor or assessor who will guide you through your studies

All e-learning courses include access to 'MyPage', our English language portal, where you can communicate with other students as well as use the five language learning forums where you can ask tutors questions and practice writing in English.

On your Practical English courses you will:

- improve your vocabulary for business and general situations
- improve your grammar, reading and listening and be ready to continue at a higher level
- feel more confident in your use of the language
- benefit from being regularly tested in what you have learnt

“ The online course is well designed and I can get an email from my mentor once a week which encourages me to study regularly. ”

Akiko Okamoto, Japan

Practical English Full Course – 6 months

This six month course focuses on grammar, reading and listening. At the start of the course you will take a diagnostic test to analyse your English language skills. This allows us to create a personalised learning path of 10 lessons to get you started.

We recommend that you study for between three and four hours per week. Every week you will have contact with a personal mentor, who will guide your learning. Lessons cover a wide variety of topics including both social and business situations. This course is suitable for all levels between level 3.0 and level 6.0 (see level chart at the back).

£ Cost: £160 (six months including weekly email contact with your mentor and access to MyPage English language portal)

We recommend that you take our online test to confirm your level of English before purchasing a course.

You have the option of adding tutorials by skype to your online course.
